‘Love From Tony’ is a 2 hour program of romantic mostly laid back songs with an occasional faster one from the seventies to the 2000’s, bringing back memories for the listeners.

The show which is recorded in a hi spec broadcast quality studio is available in either :

2 x 60 minute segments with a fading song at the end to take it over the 60

3 x segments totalling 53 minutes per hour with a fading song at the end of the last segment. (Giving you 7 x minutes for ads etc to make up each hour.)

Technical

Files are normally placed in a shared dropbox folder by Friday lunchtime (15.00 UK time). Many stations program their playout systems to search for the files and play them automatically.

Files are MP3 at 320k, and named TLH1, TLH2 for the 60 minute files, or Love01, Love02, Love03, Love04, Love05, Love06 for the 53 minute per hour version.

Advertising

As the show is free of charge we reserve the right to include adverts during the program. Jingles or similar will separate the adverts from program material to comply with Ofcom rules.

Copyright

It is the broadcasting station’s responsibility and liability for all copyright fees and costs for the music played, and at no cost to Tony Lloyd or his companies.

Editing, adding of material, or changing the program in any way is not permitted.
